€ 1 500 – 1 800

A FINE LOBI MALE BATEBA

Wood, 51 cm

on fragmentary feet, the torso with protruding abdomen and small breasts, the short neck supporting a voluminous head with convex forehead, large coffee bean eyes beside a triangular nose, with a small mouth in a protruding chin; greyish patina, losses due to old age and wear.

€ 9 000 – 12 000

A MINIANKA MASK

Wood, 44,5 cm

n'domo, of highly abstract style, the bulging convex forehead surmounted by four long spiked horns, with small round eyes and ridged nose, showing a semicircular open mouth, with round ears set aside the cheeks; medium honey brown patina overall, intensely deep around the mouth, remnants of bees' wax in which cowrie shells and red abrus seeds were once embedded.

A fine and old mask from Koutiala area, probably 19th century.

Provenance

Galerie Fred and Jens Jahn, Munich

Published

€ 8 000

Wood, 48 cm

the male figure standing on slightly bent legs on block feet, the arms from angular shoulders attached aside the torso, with small triangular breasts, the conical neck balancing a large head; medium brown encrusted patina overall.

The slightly asymmetry of the figure together with precisely carved volumes gives the figure a highly sculptural attitude.

€ 9 000

22

A FINE YAURE MASK

Wood, 40 cm

bla, representing a ram's head, with a pair of large horns bending inwards over the oval face, carved with elegant features, the small mouth protruding under a slender triangular nose, with a finely carved beard around the rim; blackened glossy patina overall.

€ 7 500 – 8 500

23

A FINE GURO MASK

Wood, 48 cm

zamble, of elegant curving form, the oblong face with open snout, the half closed eyes in oval discs, surmounted by a pair of curved horns; fine aged patina, the details painted red, ochre, green and blue.

Provenance
Hendrik Elias, Wieze

€ 5 000 – 7 000

24

Wood, 70 cm

the male figure of strong proportions, the long arms from angular shoulders encircling the columnar torso, a compressed head on strong neck, with a crested coiffure terminating in a long tress at the back; encrusted ochre patina.

Provenance
Harrie Heinemans, Eindhoven

Published
The Pleasure of Collecting African Art. The Harrie Heinemans Collection, Eindhoven 1986, p. 53

€ 4 000 – 5 000

A FINE BAULE SPIRIT SPOUSE

Wood, 42 cm

blolo bian, of naturalistic proportions, standing on round base with full calws, the smooth body decorated with patterns of scarifications all over, the ringed neck surmounted by a large oval head, the delicately face with harmonious features; fine aged patina with some encrusted areas.

€ 12 000

26

A FINE DAN MASK

Wood, 23 cm

zakpai, of classical elegant form, the oval face showing round eyes, ridged nose with accentuated nostrils, a diamond shaped mouth with prominent lips, with a convex forehead, the rim framed by three incised lines, with an attached coiffure of two long plaited fiber tresses falling aside the face; fine glossy patina.

The large round eyes in zakpai masks indicate the full vision of the dancer responsible to guard the fire in a camp of initiates. In case of fire he should be able to alarm the village in a speed race.

The fine quality of the mask can be seen by the perfect harmony in its lines and volumes.

€ 25 000 – 30 000

27

Wood, 42 cm

the female figure sitting on a high Asante stool, the arms carved free from the body and resting on the knees, the short neck balancing a large oval head with a high domed striated coiffure, the face of delicately carved features with open coffee bean eyes; glossy dark brown patina.

The fine quality of the sculpture can be seen by the balanced harmony of the figure. The slender legs and arms focus the viewer's interest on the face as the centre of the sculpture. Asymmetrical aspects are done by purpose by the sculptor and create an individual figure that can be embraced as a real person. It is uncertain if the sculpture served as a spirit wife or was associated with a spirit diviner.

€ 28 000 – 30 000

A BAULE SPIRIT SPOUSE

Wood, 37 cm

sitting on a high stool, the compressed large head showing a finely carved face with delicate smooth features, with elaborate coiffure terminating in a plaited tress at rear; aged glossy patina overall.

€ 3 000

29

A DIULA / SENUFO MASK

Brass, 26 cm

of hollow oval form, the face with downcast slit eyes, the prominent mouth with t-shaped slender nose, with round flaring ears, the cheeks with crescent extensions, surmounted by five projections and a pair of curved horns at top; varied patina.

Provenance
Collection Lüders, Stuttgart
Galerie Franke, Stuttgart

€ 7 000

30

A SENUFO TROPHY STAFF

Wood, 135 cm overall, the figure 33 cm the long staff supporting a seated female figure on a four-legged stool, with full pendant breasts, the forward protruding head with fine features, wearing a single crested coiffure with a beak-like projection falling over the forehead; black, partly sooting patina.

€ 4 000 – 6 000

31

Wood, 60 cm

the standing female figure of full proportions and naturalistic style, the head showing a heart-shaped face with prominent chin, the eyes closed down, the cap-like coiffure with a beak-like projection hanging down over the face; blackened partly oily patina, details painted red.

€ 5 000

A KRINJABO HEAD

Terracotta, 18 cm

showing a smiling male face, with convex round eyes, the chin with a protruding beard, wearing a circular hat; greyish patina overall.

Provenance

Dr. Marcel Lheureux

Helena Rubinstein, New York

Parke – Bernet Galleries, New York, April 1966, lot 141

€ 6 000 – 7 000

33

A BETE MASK

Wood, 33 cm

the naturalistic face under a domed forehead with attached beard of animal fur; medium brown patina.

Provenance

Galerie Simonis, Düsseldorf

€ 6 000 – 8 000

34

A FINE FON MONKEY ALTAR FIGURE

Wood, 46 cm

sitting on an oval base, with a round vessel before bent legs, the bent arms grasping a long snout showing a row of teeth, the small round eyes in deep sockets, wearing a fetish necklace made of shells, bark and horns; heavily encrusted patina overall.

Cf. Jacques Kerchache, et alii, L'Art Africain, no. 426, p. 392 for an almost similar monkey figure probably by the same hand. See also Fagg and Plass, 1966, p. 136 for another, formerly in the collection of Charles Ratton.

Provenance
Galerie Bernard Dulon, Paris

€ 15 000 – 20 000

35

A FINE BAULE MASK

Wood, 40 cm

ngblo, presenting a delicately carved face on high collar, the elongated facial plane with slender nose and protruding oval mouth showing teeth, semi – circular eyes under arching brows, terminating in a multicrested domed coiffure of striated tresses and knots; fine aged patina, details painted black and reddish ochre.

Published

€ 15 000 – 20 000

A BAULE CROWN

Wood, covered with goldfoil, diameter 20 cm

the velvet crown with attached small human masks and animals carved in wood, covered with gold foil.

Provenance

1971 collected by Hans Himmelheber from the carver Kuami Kuako in Kangonu.

€ 650

37

AN ASHANTI GOLD RING AND A PENDANT

Gold, diameter 2 cm and 4 cm

the ring of hollow round form, the top decorated with a rhomboid, the pendant as a spherical pearl, the outside decorated with elevated points.

For the Akan tribes gold symbolises the power of the ancestors and is the material representation of the 'soul' of the family. Golden and gold covered objects belong to the regalia of important persons and chiefs and are often associated with the sacred family shrines.

Provenance

1981 acquired from Galerie Walu, Zurich.

€ 800 – 1 000

38

A MASSIVE MALINKE GOLD BRACELET

Gold, diameter 8 cm

an open bangle consisting of two joined bands of twisted golden cords, the ends terminating in block-like bars, decorated with three rows showing incised dot-design; 980/1000 refined gold with a total weight of 289 gram.

Gold was digged all over the coast of Guinea since old days. Massive gold jewelery like our bracelet was reserved exclusively to the members of the royal family or the nobility. Gold represents mundane wealth the same as symbolic or mythological power.

€ 12 000 – 14 000

A BAULE FLYWHISK

Goldfoil over wood, 32 cm, the handle only the handle with a figure of an elephant on top, overall decorated with cross hatched motifs and covered with goldfoil.

Provenance

1971 collected by Hans Himmelheber in Kangonu.

€ 1 200

40

ANOTHER FLYWHISK

Goldfoil over wood, 43 cm, the handle only with the figure of a bird catching a snake with its beak, the bottom decorated with human masks in relief.

Flywhisks are often displayed on funerals of high ranking men as gold has not only secular value but also represent spiritual strength.

Provenance

1971 collected by Hans Himmelheber in Kangonu.

€ 1 200

Gold foil over wood, 25 cm

standing on short bent legs, the thin arms held against the columnar body, with disc – like shoulder blades, the hands touching the navel, the long neck balancing a large round head with a finely striated coiffure, a delicately carved and stylised face with a serene expression showing large eyes, small nose and mouth in a projecting chin.

Such precious miniature figures belong to the sacred treasury of Baule chiefs and were displayed alongside with other golden regalia like flywhisks and command staffs during ceremonies like important funerals. „Gold gives force. If it has no power, it is not real gold. That is why all important things include gold (...) Gold represents the force of the ancestors‘, as a categorial entity. It is the material representation of the ‘soul‘ of the family. When an important person dies, gold honors the deceased. Gold brings strength but calms evil spirits.“ Susan M. Vogel, African Art, Western Eyes, New Haven and London, 1997 p. 196

Literature

Cf. compare a very close example of a similar figure in the collection of Hubert Goldet, Paris.

€ 20 000

A FINE BENIN PLAQUE

Brass, 46 x 30 cm

the rectangular plaque showing a standing figure of a man as central motif in relief, dressed with a long skirt, with bare chest, the upper part of the body naked, his right arm resting at the skirt's knot, his left arm bent at the elbow, holding an upraised whip in his hand, wearing ringed bracelets around the wrists, a double necklace around his neck; greenish-brown patina overall.

The whip, the round hat and the specific scarification at the corner of the mouth identify the figure as a member of the Ewua palace officials. The Ewua were founded by Oba Esigie (his reign beginning 1504) who wake the Oba each morning and perform a ceremony recalling the origins of the dynasty. The uvwenhien – otan whip (the squirrel's whip) held by the figure, was manufactured from a type of special medicinally fortified plant deflecting danger. The ritual whip can be found as a ritual implement in the hands of a variety of figures: with the Oba itself (The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Perls collection, inv.-no. 1991.17.16) or with Osuan and Ooton (The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Perls collection, inv.-no. 1991.17.25), palace priests or other court officials (e. g., Perls collection, inv.-no. 1991.17.22).

A related plaque with Osuan holding the ritual whip and flanked by two Ewua officials can be found in the collection of Ethnological Museum Staatliche Museen zu Berlin, inv.-no. III C 8371, a free standing figure of Ewua official e.g. Berlin, inv.-no. III C 8207.

The plaques of the Benin royal court portray the persons and events that animated the court. They were hung on the pillars of the palace by nails punched through them. At the time of the British punitive expedition in 1897, the plaques were no longer on display, but were stored in a part of the court in which the regalia of the king were kept. An elderly chief recalled that "the plaques were kept like a card index (...) and referred to when there was a dispute about courtly etiquette" (Kate Ezra, 1992, p.118).

The background of the plaques are mostly decorated with incised foliate patterns with one to four leaves representing the ebe – ame, river leaves, used in healing rites by priestesses of Olokun, the god of the sea. The plaques were probably casted from the middle of the sixteenth to the end of the seventeenth century.

Provenance
Private collection, Munich

€ 50 000 – 70 000

54

AN IMPORTANT CAMEROON THRONE ENSEMBLE

Wood with beads, 38 cm and 76 cm

the stool on a ring base, the round seat supported by a quadruped, probably a leopard, the rim of the stool adorned with cowrie shells, the figure sitting upright with open legs to surround the stool, the arms held in front of the torso, with a large round head; entirely covered with multicoloured glassbeads.

Objects and figures adorned with beads and pearls were reserved exclusively for the royal court. Life – size figures and thrones surmounted by figures had to commemorate important kings and queens. As well one can find headdresses, masks, stools, bowls and feetrests entirely covered with beads of different colours as part of the royal treasury. Long before the contact with Europeans pearls made of glass were traded to subsaharan Africa. Red tubular glass pearls replaced mediterranean coral beads already in the XVIII. century, round pearls of massive size and of multicoloured designs were manufactured in Venice or Bohemia playing an important role in the trade of slaves and became thus a symbol of wealth and power. Pearled objects from Cameroon were admired since their discovery by Europeans and entered museum collections quite early. A most famous example for such an objet de prestige is the beaded throne in the collection of Ethnological Museum Berlin, given to the German emperor Wilhelm II by king Njoya from Bamum kingdom in 1908.

Provenance

Hans Klinkmöller, Berlin, 1930's

HESSBERG COLLECTION

The following collection of African art was formed by Dr. Klaus Hessberg, 1910 – 2010. Hessberg was a medical doctor in Essen and he assembled the small but fine collection since the 70's, mostly acquired from the renowned gallery for African art Simonis in Düsseldorf. Several travels led him to the African continent, to gain more information and knowledge on the cultures creating the works of art. The interest for the fine arts was inherited and fueled by his father Richard Hessberg, who collected Modern Art, in particular paintings by the German Expressionists.

A PAIR OF BAULE MASKS

Wood, 30 and 32 cm

representing a female and a male face, each on a massive frame, with a slender nose and accentuated coffee – bean eyes with holes for perception, the male with a small beard under elliptical protruding mouth, showing scarification marks at cheeks, forehead and temples, with elaborate coiffures; blackened patina, details painted white. From Dimbokro region, southern Baule area.

Four pairs of masks appear at the Baule goli spectacle. The goli dance is performed both for entertainment and for the sacred e.g. the funerals of important men as well. The masks appear two by two in a fixed order: first a pair of disk-faced masks (kple kple), next a pair of animal helmet masks (goli glen), third a pair of horned face masks (kpan pre) and finally two human – faced masks with crested hairdos (kpan). Our kpan masks show the carvers skillfull play with repetition and variety as can be seen in the similarities of the faces and the differences in the coiffures.

A FINE AND IMPORTANT

LUBA CARYATID

Wood, 38 cm

the female figure of strong proportions, crouching with bent legs on a fragmentary base, the body with accentuated abdomen and small pending breasts, the body and back decorated with fine scarification motifs, the arms framing the round head supporting a seat at top, the back of the head showing a classical Luba openwork coiffure; fine black oily patina overall, sooting in some areas.

Luba caryatid – stools are part of each Luba king's royal treasure and their function is symbolic. The female figure carrying its owner commemorates the matrilineal succession of dynastic ancestors and guarantees the lineage traditions. The oily patina is the result of libations with palmoil and witnesses the idea to nourish and feed the ancestral spirits incorporated in the sculpture.

EXPORT

Von der Mehrwertsteuer befreit sind Ausfuhrlieferungen in Drittländer (d.h. außerhalb der EU) und – bei Angabe der MwSt.-Identifikations-Nr. – auch an Unternehmen in anderen EU-Mitgliedstaaten. Nehmen Auktionsteilnehmer ersteigerte Gegenstände selber in Drittländer mit, wird ihnen die MwSt. erstattet, sobald dem Versteigerer der Ausfuhr- und Abnehmernachweis vorliegen.

Bei der Ausfuhr aus der EU sind die Bestimmungen des UNESCO-Übereinkommens vom 14.11.1970 sowie des Kulturgüterrückgabegesetzes zu beachten.

Exports to third (i.e. non-EU) countries will be exempt from VAT, and so will be exports made by companies from other EC member states if they state their VAT identification number. Persons who have bought an item at auction and export it as personal luggage to any third country will be refunded the VAT as soon as the form certifying the exportation and the exporter's identity has been returned to the auctioneer. Our staff will be glad to advise you on the export formalities.

Exports to lands outside the European Community are subject to the regulations of the 1970 UNESCO-Agreement and the German Kulturgüterrückgabegesetz.

CONDITIONS DE VENTE

1. Les présentes conditions de vente régissent la vente aux enchères visée par le catalogue dans lequel elles sont incluses. La participation aux enchères vaut acceptation inconditionnelle des présentes conditions de vente ainsi que toutes autres informations incluses dans ce catalogue et destinées aux acheteurs.

2. Les achats doivent être payés à la livraison, au comptant et en euros ou, en cas d'accord du vendeur, par chèque bancaire certifié. Outre le prix d'adjudication, l'acheteur paie une commission de vingt pour cent (20 %) plus 21 pour cent de T.V.A., celle-ci n'étant calculée que sur la commission d'achat. Le prix d'adjudication sera mentionné au procès-verbal.

3. L'adjudication est attribuée au plus offrant (l'acheteur). Le contrat d'achat et de vente entre Lempertz SA et l'acheteur prend effet au moment de l'adjudication. Chaque acheteur dans la salle de vente est censé agir en son propre nom et pour son propre compte et sera personnellement responsable du paiement. Lempertz SA se réserve le droit de ne pas livrer un lot vendu en l'absence du paiement intégral et préalable du prix de vente.

4. À partir de l'adjudication, tous les risques adhérents au bien adjugé passent à l'acheteur. La propriété n'est transférée qu'au moment du paiement intégral du prix de vente.

5. Sans préjudice du second alinéa du présent article, l'adjudication se fera sans aucune garantie d'absence de vices (cachés ou visibles, de conformité ou d'évitement) de la part de Lempertz SA, du commissaire-priseur assurant la vente ou de l'huisseau de justice instrumentant. Les biens et objets d'art sont vendus dans l'état dans lequel ils se trouvent à l'endroit de l'exposition et de la vente. Les indications et les estimations figurant dans le catalogue sont fournies par Lempertz SA à titre purement indicatif et n'engagent en aucun cas sa responsabilité. Les acheteurs sont censés avoir vu et examiné les biens et les objets d'art et avoir fait leur offre en toute connaissance de cause. Dans le cas exceptionnel d'une falsification prouvée, la vente d'un objet d'art peut être annulée et le prix d'adjudication remboursé à l'acquéreur s'il retourne l'objet acheté dans les trois (3) semaines après la date de la vente, avec la preuve qu'il s'agit d'une falsification, et pour autant que l'objet soit resté dans le même état qu'au moment de la vente. Les acheteurs doivent s'assurer eux-mêmes, avant la vente et pendant les jours d'examen, de l'état matériel et du statut juridique de chaque lot, en ce qui concerne les défauts ou restaurations éventuelles, ainsi que des restrictions éventuelles quant à sa négociabilité ou son exportation. Lempertz SA ne peut être tenu responsable des dommages (directs ou indirects) qui seraient la conséquence de l'état matériel ou juridique des biens vendus.

Pour les ventes soumises à l'article 1649quater du Code civil belge, Lempertz SA sera responsable en tant que vendeur pour tout défaut de conformité qui existe lors de la délivrance du bien et qui apparaît dans un an à compter de celle-ci. L'acheteur est tenu, sous peine d'échéance, d'informer Lempertz SA de l'existence du défaut de conformité dans un délai de deux mois à compter du jour où l'acheteur a constaté le défaut.

6. L'acheteur ne peut invoquer ni la compensation ou la confusion, ni peut-il suspendre le paiement du prix de vente à cause d'un trouble au sens de l'article 1653 du Code civil belge.

7. Les acheteurs doivent retirer les biens vendus endéans les dix jours calendrier suivant la date de la vente, dans les bureaux de Lempertz SA, rue aux Laines 1, 1000 Bruxelles.

8. Si l'acheteur des biens vendus ne vient pas les enlever au moment convenu et/ou s'il n'effectue pas le paiement du prix de vente total à ce moment-là, Lempertz SA a le droit à son choix (sans aucune mise en demeure) et sans préjudice à son droit aux dommages et intérêts: (i) soit de demander en justice le paiement du prix de vente; (ii) soit de considérer la vente comme résolue de plein droit et de procéder à une nouvelle vente des biens concernés.

9. L'exportation d'un bien de la Belgique et/ou l'importation dans un autre pays peuvent être soumises à des autorisations, licences ou contrôles à la frontière. Chaque acheteur est seul responsable de remplir toutes formalités et de satisfaire à toutes exigences légales et réglementaires à ce titre. Le refus ou le retard dans le processus d'obtenir une autorisation ou licence requise à l'exportation ou à l'importation ne pourra donner lieu à la résolution ou l'annulation de la vente ni à un retard de paiement du bien par l'acheteur.

10. Les données à caractère personnel collectées par Lempertz SA dans le cadre des ventes aux enchères qu'elle organise sont enregistrées dans les fichiers de Lempertz SA, tenus dans son siège social situé rue aux Laines 1, 1000 Bruxelles (Belgique). Lempertz SA opère en tant que responsable du traitement de ces données et les utilise à des fins de gestion de sa clientèle présente, potentielle ou ancienne, d'information envers cette clientèle au travers de campagnes promotionnelles concernant ses services et toutes activités et tous événements, présents et à venir, qu'elle organise, de comptabilité et de gestion du contenu. En aucun cas les données personnelles ne sont transmises à des tiers, à l'exception des sociétés appartenant au même groupe que Lempertz SA et qui pourront recevoir et utiliser les données à caractère personnel dans le cadre des mêmes finalités.

Conformément à la loi, l'acheteur dispose à tout moment d'un droit d'accès aux données le concernant et de rectification de celles-ci, gratuitement et sur demande à l'adresse mentionnée ci-dessus. Si le responsable du traitement utilise les données personnelles de l'acheteur à des fins d'envoi de messages promotionnels, l'acheteur dispose à tout moment du droit de s'opposer, gratuitement et sans aucune justification, à recevoir des messages promotionnels de sa part. Ce droit peut être exercé par simple demande par courrier à la même adresse.

11. Les présentes conditions de vente ainsi que les droits et obligations des parties découlant des présentes conditions de vente, de la présente vente aux enchères et des contrats de vente individuels conclus à la présente vente aux enchères sont régis par le droit belge.

Tous litiges portant sur les matières visées au premier alinéa de cet article relèvent de la compétence exclusive des tribunaux de Bruxelles.

VERKOOPSVOORWAARDEN

1. Deze verkoopsvoorwaarden zijn van toepassing op de openbare veiling bedoeld in de catalogus waarin zij opgenomen zijn. Deelneming aan de veiling houdt de onvoorwaardelijke aanvaarding in van deze verkoopsvoorwaarden en van alle andere informatie opgenomen in deze catalogus die bestemd is voor de kopers.

2. Verkopen dienen contant in Euro of, indien aanvaard door de eigenaar, per gecertificeerde bankcheque betaald te worden bij levering. De koper betaalt bovenop de toewijzingsprijs een commissie van twintig procent (20%) evenals de 21% BTW op de aankoopcommissie. De toewijzingsprijs zal vermeld staan op het proces-verbaal.

3. De toewijzing geschiedt aan de meestbiedende (de koper). De koop- en verkoopovereenkomst tussen Lempertz SA en de koper komt tot stand op het moment van toewijzing. Iedere koper in de veilingzaal wordt geacht in eigen naam en voor eigen rekening te handelen, en zal persoonlijk aansprakelijk zijn voor de betaling. Lempertz SA behoudt zich het recht voor om geen enkel verkocht lot af te leveren zonder voorafgaande en integrale betaling van de verkoopprijs.

4. Vanaf de toewijzing gaan alle risico's betreffende het toegewezen voorwerp over naar de koper. De eigendom gaat slechts over op het moment van volledige betaling van de verkoopprijs.

5. Behalve zoals bepaald in het tweede lid van dit artikel, zal de toewijzing geschieden zonder enige waarborg voor (verborgen dan wel zichtbare) gebreken, niet-conformiteit of uitwinning vanwege Lempertz SA, de optredende veilingmeester of de instrumenterende gerechtsdeurwaarder. De goederen en kunstvoorwerpen worden verkocht in de staat waarin ze zich bevinden op de plaats van bezichtiging en veiling. De beschrijvingen en schattingen opgenomen in de catalogus worden door Lempertz SA louter indicatief verstrekt en kunnen geen enkele aansprakelijkheid van Lempertz SA teweegbrengen. De kopers worden geacht de goederen en kunstvoorwerpen te hebben bezichtigt en onderzocht en hun bod met volledige kennis van zaken te hebben gedaan. In het uitzonderlijke geval van bewezen vervalsing kan de verkoop van een kunstvoorwerp ontbonden worden en de toewijzingsprijs aan de koper worden terugbetaald als hij het aangekochte voorwerp binnen de drié (3) weken na de veilingdatum retourneert met het bewijs dat het een vervalsing is, en voor zover dat het voorwerp nog steeds in identiek dezelfde staat en toestand verkeert als op het ogenblik van de veiling. De kopers dienen zich voor de veiling, tijdens de kijkdagen, zelf te vergewissen van de materiële toestand en juridische staat van elk lot, wat betreft eventuele gebreken, restauraties of eventuele beperkingen op hun overdraagbaarheid of uitvoer. Lempertz SA kan niet aansprakelijk gesteld worden voor (rechtstreekse dan wel onrechtstreekse) schade die het gevolg is van de materiële of juridische toestand van de verkochte goederen.

Met betrekking tot de verkopen die aan 1649quater van her Belgisch Burgerlijk Wetboek onderworpen zijn, is Lempertz SA als verkoper aansprakelijk voor elk conformiteitsgebrek dat bestaat bij de levering van de goederen en dat zich manifesteert binnen een termijn van een jaar te rekenen vanaf deze levering. De koper dient Lempertz SA op de hoogte te brengen van het conformiteitsgebrek binnen de twee maanden vanaf de dag waarop de koper het gebrek heeft vastgesteld, op straffe van verval van zijn compensatierecht.

6. De koper kan zich niet beroepen op schuldvergelijking, noch op schuldvermenging, noch kan hij de betaling van de verkoopprijs opschorten wegens een stoornis in de zin van artikel 1653 van het Belgisch Burgerlijk Wetboek.

7. De kopers dienen de verkochte goederen af te halen binnen de tien kalenderdagen na de datum van de veiling, in het kantoor van Lempertz SA, Wolstraat 1, 1000 Brussel.

8. Indien de koper de verkochte goederen niet komt afhalen op het afgesproken tijdstip, of op dat moment niet overgaat tot de betaling van de volledige verkoopprijs, heeft Lempertz SA het recht, naar diens vrije keuze, om zonder enige verdere ingebrekestelling en zonder afbreuk aan haar recht tot schadevergoeding: (i) hetzij de betaling van de verkoopprijs in rechte te vorderen; (ii) hetzij de koop- en verkoopovereenkomst van rechtswege als ontbonden te beschouwen en over te gaan tot wederverkoop van de desbetreffende goederen

9. De uitvoer van een goed uit België en/of de invoer in een ander land kan onderworpen zijn aan vergunnings- of toelatingsplicht of aan grenscontroles. Elke koper is alleen verantwoordelijk om de nodige formaliteiten te vervullen en aan de wettelijke en reglementaire vereisten te voldoen in dat verband. Een weigering of vertraging in het verkrijgen van een vereiste export- of importvergunning of -toelating kan geen aanleiding geven tot het ontbinden of vernietigen van de verkoop of een vertraging in de betaling van het goed door de koper.

10. Alle persoonsgegevens die verzameld worden door Lempertz SA in het kader van de veilingen die zij organiseert worden bewaard in de bestanden van Lempertz SA, Wolstraat 1, 1000 Brussel (België) en worden door deze laatste, in haar hoedanigheid van verantwoordelijke voor de verwerking van de gegevens, aangewend met het oog op het beheer van haar huidige, toekomstige of oude klantenbestand, het informeren van haar klanten via promotiecampagnes over haar diensten en alle huidige of toekomstige activiteiten en evenementen georganiseerd door Lempertz SA, voor haar boekhouding of voor geschillenbeheer. In geen geval worden de persoonsgegevens aan derden meegedeeld, met uitzondering van de venootschappen die tot dezelfde groep als Lempertz SA behoren en die de persoonsgegevens verwerven en gebruiken voor dezelfde doeleinden.

Overeenkomstig de wet heeft de koper op elk moment het recht om de gegevens die op hem betrekking hebben, in te kijken en te verbeteren, gratis en mits verzoek op het hierboven vermelde adres. Als de verantwoordelijke voor de verwerking van persoonsgegevens gebruik maakt van de verzending van promotionele boodschappen, heeft de koper op elk moment het recht om zich te verzetten tegen de ontvangst van zulke promotionele boodschappen, en dit gratis en zonder verdere rechtvaardiging. Dit recht kan uitgeoefend worden middels een eenvoudig schriftelijk verzoek op hetzelfde adres.

11. Deze verkoopsvoorwaarden evenals de rechten en verplichtingen van de partijen die uit deze verkoopsvoorwaarden, deze veiling en de individuele koop- en verkoopovereenkomsten afgesloten in het kader van deze veiling voortvloeien, worden beheert door het Belgisch recht.

Alle geschillen in verband met de in het eerste lid van dit artikel opgesomde zaken vallen onder de uitsluitende bevoegdheid van de rechtkanten van Brussel.

TERMS OF SALE

1. These conditions of sale govern the auction sale offered by the catalogue in which they are included. Participating in the auction entails unconditional acceptance of these conditions of sale and of all other information included in this catalogue and addressed to the buyers.

2. All sales shall be cash sales to be paid in Euro currency, or, if so approved by the owner, by certified bank cheque at time of delivery of the items sold. In addition to his/her accepted bid price, the buyer shall pay a commission of twenty percent (20%). This buyer's commission is subject to 21% VAT. The accepted bid price shall be stated on the auction report.

3. The sale shall be awarded to the highest bidder (the buyer). The sale and purchase agreement between Lempertz SA and the buyer shall be considered concluded at the time the bid is accepted. Every buyer in the auction room shall be deemed to be acting in his/her own name and for his/her own account and he/she shall be held personally liable for making the payment. Lempertz SA reserves the right not to deliver any sold item without prior and full settlement of the purchase price.

4. As of the time of the awarding of an item to the successful bidder, all risks relating to that property are transferred to the latter. The property title is transferred only as of the time of full payment of the purchase price.

5. Except for the provision in the second paragraph of this article, the awarding of an item shall be conducted without any guarantee with respect to (hidden or visible) defects, non-conformity or third party claims, on the part of Lempertz SA, the acting auctioneer or the executing judicial officer. All descriptions, statements and estimates included in the catalogue provided by Lempertz SA are purely indicative and shall not entail any liability on the part of Lempertz SA. The auctioned articles and art objects are sold in the condition in which they are found at the location where they can be previewed and will be auctioned in that condition. The buyers are assumed to have viewed and examined the articles and art objects and to have submitted their bid with full knowledge of the appertaining conditions. In the unlikely event of a proven forgery, the sale of an art object can be voided and the paid bid price be refunded to the buyer, provided, however, that the latter returns the purchased item within three (3) weeks of the auction date together with evidence that it is a forgery, and only to the extent that the object has been kept in the same state and condition as it was at the time of its sale at the auction. It shall be incumbent on the buyers themselves to secure assurances prior to the auction, during the days of preview, about the physical condition and legal status of each lot as far as any possible defects or restorations or any restrictions on its transferability or exportability are concerned. Lempertz SA cannot be held liable for (either direct or indirect) damages resulting from the physical or legal condition of the items sold.

With regard to sales subject to article 1649quater of the Belgian Civil Code, Lempertz SA will be liable as seller for any non-conformity existing at the time of delivery of an object and which becomes apparent within one year from that date. The buyer is bound to inform Lempertz SA of the existence of a conformity defect within two months from the date on which the buyer has discovered the defect, failing which his/her right to be compensated shall be forfeited.

6. The buyer expressly waives his/her right to invoke set-off or merger confusion, nor is he/she entitled to suspend payment of the purchase price by reason of a buyer's trouble within the meaning of article 1653 of the Belgian Civil Code.

7. The buyers must collect the purchased items within ten calendar days following the date of the auction, at the offices of Lempertz SA at rue aux Laines 1, 1000 Brussels (Belgium).

8. In the event that the buyer fails to collect the purchased items at the time established and/or does not at that moment pay the sales prices in full, Lempertz SA shall be entitled, at its own discretion and without any further need to send a notice of default, without prejudice to Lempertz SA's right to claim damages: (i) either to pursue its legal claim for payment of the sales price; (ii) or to consider the sale and purchase agreement to be legally rescinded and to proceed to the resale of the property concerned.

9. The export of an object from Belgium and/or import into any other country may be subject to license or permit requirements or controls at the border. Each buyer shall be solely responsible to fulfill any necessary formalities and to satisfy any legal or regulatory requirements in that respect. A refusal of or delay in the process of obtaining an export or import licence or permit shall not justify the cancellation or rescission of the sale or any delay in the payment of the item by the buyer.

10. Any personal data collected by Lempertz SA in the course of the auctions it organises are kept in the records of Lempertz SA, held at its registered office at rue aux Laines 1, 1000 Brussels (Belgium) and are processed by Lempertz SA for the purposes of managing its current, potential and former customers, keeping them informed of promotional campaigns in relation to its services and of any current and future activities and events organised by Lempertz SA, the company's account keeping and the handling of disputes. Under no circumstances will any personal data be disclosed to third parties, except to companies belonging to the same group as Lempertz SA which may be given such personal data and use them for the same purposes.

In accordance with the law, the buyer has the right to access and amend any personal data concerning the buyer at any time, free of charge, at simple request sent to the address mentioned above. In the event that the processing manager uses the buyer's personal data to send him/her promotional material, the buyer has the right at any time to refuse to receive such promotional material, free of charge and without giving any reason. This right can be exercised at simple request sent by mail to the same address.

01. These conditions of sale and all rights and obligations resulting from these conditions of sale, this auction and the individual sale and purchase agreements concluded at this auction shall be governed by Belgian law.

The Courts of Brussels shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle all disputes arising in connection with any of the matters set out in the first paragraph of this article.

VERKAUFSBEDINGUNGEN

1. Diese Verkaufsbedingungen gelten für die in dem Katalog in dem sie aufgenommen wurden erwähnte Versteigerung. Die Teilnahme an der Versteigerung setzt die bedingungslose Annahme dieser Verkaufsbedingungen voraus, sowie aller sonstigen Informationen des Katalogs, die für die Käufer bestimmt sind.

2. Verkäufe sind bei Lieferung in Euro oder, wenn vom Eigentümer akzeptiert, mit zertifiziertem Bankscheck zu bezahlen. Der Käufer zahlt über den Zuschlagspreis hinaus eine Provision von zwanzig Prozent (20 %) zuzüglich 21 % Umsatzsteuer auf die Käuferprovision. Der Zuschlagspreis wird im Protokoll vermerkt.

3. Der Zuschlag erfolgt an den Meistbietenden (den Käufer). Der Kauf- und Verkaufsvertrag zwischen Lempertz SA und dem Käufer kommt mit dem Zuschlag zustande. Von jedem Käufer im Versteigerungssaal wird angenommen, dass er in eigenem Namen und auf eigene Rechnung handelt. Jeder Käufer haftet persönlich für die Zahlung. Lempertz SA behält sich das Recht vor, kein einziges verkauftes Los ohne vorherige und vollständige Zahlung des Verkaufspreises auszuliefern.

4. Mit dem Zuschlag gehen alle Risiken bezüglich des erworbenen Gegenstands auf den Käufer über. Das Eigentum wird erst zum Zeitpunkt der vollständigen Zahlung des Verkaufspreises übertragen.

5. Außer in den im zweiten Absatz dieses Artikels genannten Fällen, erfolgt der Zuschlag ohne Garantie für (verborgene oder sichtbare) Mängel, Fehler oder Haftung seitens der Lempertz SA, seitens des agierenden Auktionsators oder des ausführenden Gerichtsvollziehers. Die Güter und Kunstgegenstände werden in dem Zustand verkauft, in dem sie sich am Ort der Besichtigung und Versteigerung befinden. Die Beschreibungen und Schätzungen im Katalog werden von der Lempertz SA rein informativ zur Verfügung gestellt und führen unter keinen Umständen zu Haftungsansprüchen gegen die Lempertz SA. Es wird davon ausgegangen, dass die Käufer die Güter und Kunstgegenstände besichtigt und geprüft haben und ihr Angebot in vollständiger Kenntnis der Sachlage gemacht haben. Im außergewöhnlichen Fall einer bewiesenen Fälschung kann der Verkauf eines Kunstgegenstands storniert werden und kann der Zuschlagspreis dem Käufer rückgestattet werden, wenn dieser den gekauften Gegenstand innerhalb von drei (3) Wochen nach dem Versteigerungsdatum mit dem Beweis der Fälschung zurückbringt und sofern der Gegenstand sich noch stets in exakt demselben Zustand befindet, in dem er zum Zeitpunkt der Versteigerung war. Die Käufer müssen sich während der Besichtigungstage, selbst vom materiellen Zustand und vom rechtlichen Status jedes Loses in Bezug auf eventuelle Mängel, Restaurierungen oder eventuelle Übertragungs- oder Ausfuhrbeschränkungen vergewissern. Lempertz SA kann nicht für (direkte oder indirekte) Schäden haftbar gemacht werden, die eine Folge des materiellen Zustands oder des rechtlichen Status der verkauften Güter sind.

Bezüglich der Verkäufe, die Art. 1649 des belgischen Zivilgesetzbuchs unterliegen, ist die Lempertz SA als Verkäufer für jeden Konformitätsmangel haftbar, der bei Lieferung der Güter besteht, und der innerhalb einer Frist von einem Jahr ab dem Datum dieser Lieferung in Erscheinung tritt. Der Käufer muss die Lempertz SA, bei Strafe des Verfalls seiner Ersatzansprüche, über den Konformitätsmangel innerhalb von zwei Monaten nach Feststellung des Mangels durch den Käufer informieren.

6. Der Käufer kann sich nicht auf Aufrechnung oder auf Konfusion berufen, noch kann er die Zahlung des Verkaufspreises aufgrund einer Störung im Sinne von Artikel 1653 des belgischen Zivilgesetzbuches aufschieben.

7. Die verkauften Güter sind von den Käufern innerhalb von zehn Kalendertagen nach dem Tage der Versteigerung in den Räumlichkeiten der Lempertz SA, Wolstraat 1, 1000 Brüssel abzuholen.

8. Wenn der Käufer die verkauften Güter nicht zum vereinbarten Termin abholt oder zu diesem Zeitpunkt nicht den vollständigen Verkaufspreis bezahlt, hat die Lempertz SA das Recht, ohne jegliche weitere Inverzugsetzung und ohne Einschränkung ihrer Schadensersatzansprüche, nach eigenem Ermessen: (i) die Zahlung des Verkaufspreises gerichtlich einzufordern; (ii) oder den Kauf- und Verkaufsvertrag von Rechts wegen als gelöst zu betrachten und die betreffenden Güter erneut zu verkaufen.

9. Die Ausfuhr von Gütern aus Belgien und/oder die Einfuhr in ein anderes Land können einer Genehmigungs- oder Zulassungspflicht unterliegen und/oder Grenzkontrollen unterzogen werden. Jeder Käufer ist für die Erledigung der erforderlichen Formalitäten sowie für die Einhaltung der diesbezüglichen gesetzlichen und behördlichen Vorschriften ausschließlich selbst verantwortlich. Eine Weigerung oder Verzögerung bezüglich der Erlangung einer erforderlichen Ausfuhr- oder Einfuhrgenehmigung bzw. -zulassung kann weder Anlass für die Aufhebung oder Auflösung des Verkaufs sein, noch für eine Verzögerung der Bezahlung der Güter durch den Käufer.

10. Alle personenbezogenen Daten, die von der Lempertz SA im Rahmen der durch sie organisierten Versteigerungen gesammelt werden, werden in den Dateien der Lempertz SA, Wolstraat 1, 1000 Brüssel (Belgien) gespeichert und werden von ihr in ihrer Eigenschaft als für die Datenverarbeitung verantwortliche Organisation für die Verwaltung ihrer aktuellen, künftigen oder alten Kundendaten verwendet, sowie zur Information ihrer Kunden mittels Werbekampagnen bezüglich ihrer Dienstleistungen und aller aktuellen und künftigen von ihr organisierten Aktivitäten und Veranstaltungen, für buchhalterische Zwecke und zur Streitfallabwicklung. Die personenbezogenen Daten werden in keinem Fall an Dritte weitergeleitet, außer an Gesellschaften, die zu derselben Gruppe wie die der Lempertz SA gehören, und die die personenbezogenen Daten für die gleichen Zwecke erwerben und verwenden.

Laut Gesetz ist der Käufer zu jedem Zeitpunkt berechtigt, die sich auf ihn beziehenden Daten kostenlos an der oben genannten Adresse einzusehen und zu korrigieren. Wenn die für die Verarbeitung verantwortliche Organisation die personenbezogenen Daten für das Versenden von Werbemittelungen verwendet, ist der Käufer zu jedem Zeitpunkt berechtigt, sich dem Erhalt solcher Werbemittelungen kostenlos und ohne weitere Rechtfertigung zu widersetzen. Dieser Anspruch kann mittels eines einfachen schriftlichen Antrags an dieselbe Adresse geltend gemacht werden.

11. Diese Verkaufsbedingungen sowie die Rechte und Pflichten der Parteien, die aufgrund dieser Verkaufsbedingungen, dieser Versteigerung und der im Rahmen dieser Versteigerung abgeschlossenen individuellen Kauf- und Verkaufsverträge entstehen, unterliegen belgischem Recht.

Alle Streitfälle im Zusammenhang mit den im ersten Absatz dieses Artikels genannten Angelegenheiten unterliegen ausschließlich der Zuständigkeit der Brüsseler Gerichte.
