AUCTION OVERVIEW:

This online auction of contemporary art from Africa and the diaspora features recognised artists, including: Cheri Samba (pictured left) who is currently exhibited in Foundation Cartier's Beauté Congo, Julien Sinzogan, William Kentridge, Ramouald Hazoumé, Bruce Onobrakpeya, Ephrem Solomon and Owusu-Ankomah. This year the auction will also focus on work by artists from the African diaspora, including Chris Ofili, Sokari Douglas Camp, Shoshanna Weinberger, Jean-Francois Bole, Cullen Washington JR. and Lynette Yiadom-Boakye. Estimates range from £500 up to £36,000 - making it appealing to both first-time buyers and international collectors of contemporary art.

A particular highlight of this auction is Cemetery (lot 19) by Lynette Yiadom-Boakye, estimated at £36,000 - £55,000. Yiadom-Boakye is of Ghanaian descent but was born and lives in London. She has gained increasing international acclaim over the past few years after winning the Victor Pinchuk Foundation's Future Generation Prize in 2012, being nominated for the Turner prize in 2013 and featuring last year in the Venice Biennale's 55th international exhibition Encyclopedic Palace. She currently has a solo-exhibition at The Serpentine Gallery, Verses After Dusk.
